For Immediate Use

Course-Source offers Free E-learning at Learning Technologies 2007

Course-Source is offering 30-days free e-learning to individual visitors to the 2007 Learning Technologies exhibition. To take advantage of this offer, visitors need to visit the company at stand 87 and select three training subject areas. They will then be given free 30-day access to selected courses hosted on Course-Source's multi-award winning learning portal.

Learning areas to choose from are Leadership and Management skills, Health and Safety legislation, Recruitment and HR, Sales and Marketing, Workplace Legislation, Microsoft Office and IT Professional Training.
